Thank you for your interest in the position of Varsity Editor for Lent Term 2018.

To apply, you should submit a document outlining your application for the position. Pairs who wish to co-edit the paper must submit a single jointly-written document. It should contain the following:

- Vision statement and assessment of Varsity's role in Cambridge A brief statement outlining your vision for the paper. This should include an account of how you would edit Varsity, editorial direction and general ideas on the paper's popularity and image. It should also include brief discussion of Varsity's role in Cambridge and relationship with other societies, organisations and student publications. It should be no more than 800 words.
- Section by section critique Go through all sections of the paper, including Violet, video content and social media. For sections that will remain relatively unchanged a brief explanation is fine. Space should be devoted to sections being substantially changed, removed or the proposed introduction of new sections.
- Ideas for structural or production changes Any proposed changes to the structure of the Varsity team, or the design of the paper or the paper edition or website.
- Sample editorial This may be on any suitable topic, and should be no more than 500 words.
- Personal statement This should include a brief description of any relevant experience (though none is required), as well as your subject and course and any other extracurricular activities which you will be participating in this Lent term. It should be no more than 500 words.

The completed application must be no longer than 4,000 words in length. Your application should be packaged as a Word document, or PDF, and sent to the Varsity Society President (president@varsity.co.uk) by 5pm on Monday 13th November.

Interviews for shortlisted candidates are planned to be conducted on the 17th November. Interviews will be conducted by the VarSoc President, the current Editors, the Business Manager and representatives of the Varsity Publications Ltd board of directors.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish you the best of luck with your application. If you have any questions, please contact Louis Ashworth (VarSoc President) via the email listed above.
